

EXPERIENCE . KNOWLEDGE . EXCELLENCE

Jerry prides himself on the ability to handle ordinary as well as complex and difficult matters for his clients by combining a strong knowledge of diverse legal matters with a devoted work ethic. The cases he handles are very serious matters and are treated as such. Jerry has extensive experience and training in contested hearings and trials before judges and juries. He is driven and determined to achieve positive results for his clients. He is always prepared to work in a cooperative and amicable manner to obtain the most beneficial and appropriate outcome in a case whether the case is concluded by settlement negotiation, mediation, arbitration or by non-jury trial or jury trial. The commitment to his clients is to work towards purposeful resolutions and to do so with minimum distress and maximum value.

The great majority of the several thousand clients who have been represented by Jerry in his 46 years of practice have been referred to him by other attorneys, judges and former clients. In many cases, he has represented families for over three decades in connection with their legal matters. In the event that one of his clients has a legal issue which Jerry doesn't address or doesn't wish to be involved with, Jerry will help that client find an attorney appropriate for that particular legal issue.

Representative clients include, but are not limited to:

Attorneys, sitting judges, physicians of all practices, CPAs, teachers and professors, therapists and counselors, priests and pastors, homebuilders and contractors, business executives and multi-millionaires, professional athletes, police officers and pilots.
